9. Other business:
  - i. P&C website: needs to be updated - Trish Harman
  - ii. Vacation Care. As the school is growing in size it should think about providing a vacation care service - currently students who need care during school holidays use Leichhardt and North Annandale schools but their programs often get booked out. As we are already providing before and after school care we already have the facilities and resources and should easily be able to ramp up to provide vacation care as well for students. This would position the school as it grows with its counterparts in Leichhardt and North Annandale.
10. Next Meeting date (last Tuesday of the month for 2009) – Janice Jones
